20,000 SUBSCRIBERS FOR CAMPAIGN.

We have had a number of requests to make a special rate for THE CAUCASIAN for three months. We cannot do this. It means a loss to us. The paper cannot be published for less than $1.00 a year without loss. Besides, we want each subscriber to read the paper each week till the close of the coming campaign. Therefore we make this offer: We will send the paper from now till December 1, 1905, to each person who sends $1.00 now. Let every subscriber spare enough time to send in a club under this offer. Every voter should know the facts which THE CAUCASIAN is publishing each week.

VERBAL FREE PASSES.

The law ought to be supreme. It is as to poor people. But how about administering it upon rich folks and big corporations? For years these have openly defied the law, forbidding freight and passenger rates to be hauled cheaper for one man than another. Many of the solicitors, it is said, ride on free passes themselves. It is even said that some of the judges have been "touched" and one judge is known to have gotten a railroad president to instruct his conductors verbally to pass him free, without having an actual printed pass. There are other people ashamed to be seen with passes to whom the railroad issue mileage books without paying for them. This evasion is no good. These men are more guilty morally and legally than those who openly carry passes, and thus defiantly compel their poorer neighbors to pay for the free riding of "pass travelers." When Judge

Simonton, the "injunction man," came to Raleigh last January to hold court, he not only came on a free pass, but in a railroad official's palace car. This was against both State and Federal law, but with him, like Vanderbilt, "the law be d—d." Yet a sturdy N. C. judge and jury can make the railroad company pay $5,000 for hauling him here free all the same—unless he can show that he is "a railroad employee."

Let the law be honestly enforced, and all these people who now ride free when they begin to pay for riding will suddenly find 3¢, 10¢, 20¢, 30¢, 40¢, 50¢, 60¢, 70¢, 80¢, 90¢, 100¢, 110¢, 120¢, 130¢,
